

AWC Mumbai - Listed Charities for 2014-2016
Support in Five Key Areas
Education; Career Interest Development; Shelter;
Nutrition; Health & Medical

URJA, Shelter for Young Women
Outreach program, Vocational and Night School (18 girls)

VOICE, “Sanjivani” School and Shelter, girls and women
Rehabilitates and provides education for girls (32)

Foundation for Mother and Child Health (FMCH)
Tackling Malnutrition, Education, Medical

AWC Mentorship Program, Educating 9 young girls monitored by
Indian Association for Promotion of Adoption & Child Welfare (IAPA)
3 underprivileged girls

Bombay Community Public Trust (BCPT)
3 blind girls

Mann
3 girls with Special Needs

AWC associated with the Bombay Community Public Trust (BCPT) in 2014 to receive and manage the donations for AWC Mumbai. Donations are given every quarter in areas listed above. Due Diligence, financial transparency and accountability along with Half Year reports with progress will be available.

AWC Mumbai will help provide equal opportunity to girls and women in spite of their handicap, status, challenges. Through education, nutrition and honing basic skills, we hope they will sustain and be able to enjoy a balanced and holistic life. Let’s try to keep their window open!